

This is to express my concern over the effects on our democracy of media consolidation and to make a plea for strengthening ownership rules and licensing processes.

The decision on the part of Sinclair Broadcasting to ensure that their stations air a politically-motivated program days before the presidential election is noncompliant with the obligation to serve public interest.